

Storefront

Netherlands Director Right Hand (Intern)

Amsterdam, Netherlands

What we are building

Storefront is the largest international marketplace for short-term commercial space rental. We connect brands with retail spaces for the purpose of pop-up shops, showrooms, product launches and other events. We're the "Airbnb for pop-up stores" and we believe we can disrupt upside-down the retail industry.

Our platform powers over 10,000 listings, which represent more than 30 million square feet of retail space. We offer greater access to spaces in leading retail cities around the world, including New York City, Paris, London, Hong Kong, Los Angeles, and Amsterdam. Since our launch in 2014, we have helped 4,000+ brands all over the world, including Google, Samsung and L'Oréal, open temporary retail stores.

Storefront consists of a team of 40+ passionate people, based in Paris, London, Amsterdam, New York, San Francisco and Hong Kong.

Responsibilities and expectations

Storefront is looking for a talented young professional to work side-by-side with our management team. Immersed in our strategy, you'll be assigned the mission to analyze and understand our business in order to come up with recommendations for Netherlands Director.

In particular, you'll have to:

- Support the director on various strategic and operational issues – including business development, customer success, marketing and data quality
- Carry out reviews and analyses of our business and prepare related decision materials
- Implement, track and analyze operational KPIs in order to come up with recommendations
- Handle update of financial projections
- Take responsibility for your projects; sharing responsibilities, communicating clearly, setting deadlines and demonstrating results
- You will also assist in the preparation of presentations for events

Requirements

- Currently enrolled in a Master's degree of one of Europe's leading business schools
- High-energy self-starter with a relentless, entrepreneurial work ethic
- Analytically-minded, detail conscious and independent – eager to assume initiative
- Exceptionally organised, with planning, time management and multitasking skills
- Flexible and able to work across departments, quickly switching between tasks
- Excellent English communication skills (written and verbal) – extremely clear, tactful and timely
- Good understanding and interest in marketplaces and digital startups
- Outstanding proficiency in MS Office, Google Docs, and willing to learn new softwares

What to expect from us

- Work side-by-side with management team and get first-hand insights on building an internationally-backed venture company
- Responsibilities from day one with a steep learning curve – you won't be the same after this internship!
- Opportunity to join Storefront full time upon successful completion of internship
- Be part of a fast-growing and international startup
- Join a family of passionate people that challenges the norm and makes brilliant ideas happen

Please reach out, we'd love to share with you what we're doing and discuss the ways we can work together. Send a CV and a short letter explaining why you'd like to join our family to: jobnl@thestorefront.com
